SENATOR TONI G. ATKINS
SENATE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE
STATE CAPITOL, ROOM 205
SACRAMENTO, CA 95814

RE: REVISAL OF CAL. CIV. CODE § 841

Dear Senator Atkins,

From the founding of this country with the first permanent Anglo-American settlement at Jamestown, Virginia, in 1607, the privilege of petition was considered a sacred right of all citizens, and this right was eventually codified in the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, as I have documented here:

<https://she-philosopher.com/ib/topics/demagoguery.html#right-to-petition-and-criticize-government>

(note: this and subsequent URLs are case-sensitive)

This is my 9th printed letter exercising that constitutional right in petitioning your office “for a redress of grievances” caused by the California state legislature’s botched repeal-and-replace of Section 841 of the California Civil Code, as enacted via AB 1404 (the ill-conceived Good Neighbor Fence Act of 2013).

In my 7th letter to you dated 12/2/2019 — a copy of which is available here

— I asked you to list your legislative priorities for 2020 so that I would know if they include fixing Section 841 of the California Civil Code. I am still awaiting your response.

Sincerely,

Deborah Taylor-Pearce
